

Jason Fisher

MANAGING PARTNER

jfisher@thinkempirical.com

Jason is a seasoned leader, utilizing 20+ years of leadership, execution, and change management experience as an entrepreneur and from Fortune 500 organizations..

With experience across various industries, Jason brings a multidisciplinary perspective to his clients, which enables him to challenge the status quo and generate positive change.

EXTENSIVE EXPERTISE IN:

- Operational Strategy
- Change Management
- Customer Success
- M&A Integrations
- Project Management
- Human Resources
- Talent Acquisition

Before Empirical, Jason served in various leadership roles in multinational companies in the medical devices, professional services, and hospitality industries, where he led large teams and P&L centers.

Beyond work, Jason is committed to serving the non-profit community, volunteering with Compass Pro Bono, and leading nine-month projects for non-profit organizations in strategic alignment and marketing.

Jason earned a business degree from Temple University and holds certificates in leadership / critical thinking from the Wharton School of Continuing Education Program and holds a Kaizen Leader certificate from BMS.

KNOWN FOR:

Critical and strategic thinking

Complex problem-solving

Leadership

Driving change

Transparency and candor

