

Terry Taylor

DIRECTOR, OPERATIONS

ttaylor@thinkempirical.com

Terry is a seasoned Director and Project Manager with a proven track record of delivering leadership, value, and enhanced company profitability during continual growth and organizational transformation.

With demonstrated experience in operations, project management, and strategic financial management business units across a $40 billion global company, Terry is a proven performer. He has consistently had strong achievements in building company value, strengthening operational infrastructure, and organizational restructuring. Terry also works to enhance team performance and engagement by utilizing a team-first approach, process improvement, and lean methodologies.

EXTENSIVE EXPERTISE IN:

- Organizational Restructuring
- Technology Integration
- Optimizing Production Processes
- Capital Project Management
- Manufacturing Efficiencies

Over his career, Terry has worked in a variety of leadership and operations roles across the manufacturing, industrial, and aerospace industries. He has served as a Plant Manager, operations management consultant, and Director of Operations where he was responsible for outstanding P/L execution and driving accountability for performance throughout the organization.

Terry earned an MBA from Indiana Wesleyan University.

KNOWN FOR:

Capital project management

Driving accountability

Improving team performance

Production management

Strategic insight

